

Andrew Mack's New Song Mack's Song Games

the hit of Tom Moore
in the charming school-room scene
with the children

MACK'S SONG GAMES

Andante moderato

ANDREW MACK

1. This lit - tle scene on which I gaze, brings gent - ly to my view The good old times, my schoolboy days, when
2. No race on earth is half so bless'd with gift of song or tune, We nurse it from the mother's breast as Published by permission of Howley, Haviland & Dresser, owners of the copyright.

MUSIC SUPPLEMENT OF HEARST'S CHICAGO AMERICAN CHICAGO, SUNDAY, OCT. 20, 1901—PAGES 5-8

I was young like you, With hearts so light and spi - rits bright, no thought of grief or pain. On.
lul - la - by she'd croon, With voice so sweet and fond heart-beat, thrumming love's re-frain. On.

on with song, my merry throng, I'll be a boy a - gain. The song-games we'll sing, so let your voice - es ring:-
on with song, my merry throng, I'll be a boy a - gain. The song-games we'll sing, so let your voice - es ring:-
a poco rall.

Refrain after 1st. verse

1. I came to see Miss Jen-nie O' Jones, Jen-nie O' Jones, Jen-nie O' Jones, I
2. ve - ry sor - ry to hear ..... it. hear ..... it, hear ..... it, I'm
3. ve - ry sor - ry to hear ..... it, hear ..... it, hear ..... it, I'm came to see Miss Jen-nie O' Jones, How is she to - day?.....

ve - ry sor - ry to hear ..... it. and how is she to - day?.....
ve - ry sor - ry to hear ..... it, and how is she to - day?.....
1. & 2. 3. D.C.

Spoken:— Yes, boys and girls, I am very sorry to tell you that the doctor has just left the room, and informs Well, you see, the trouble is just this,—About a week ago the doctor gave her a shilling piece to me, with a tear in his eye and regret in his voice, that it will be absolutely impossible play with, and she swallowed it. The doctor, after diagnosing the case very thoroughly, comes to the con-possible for her to come out and play with you to-day. I'm On the green car - pet

p

 - clusion that she's a shilling in and he's a shilling out. I'm Now you're married we

Refrain after

D.S. D.S.

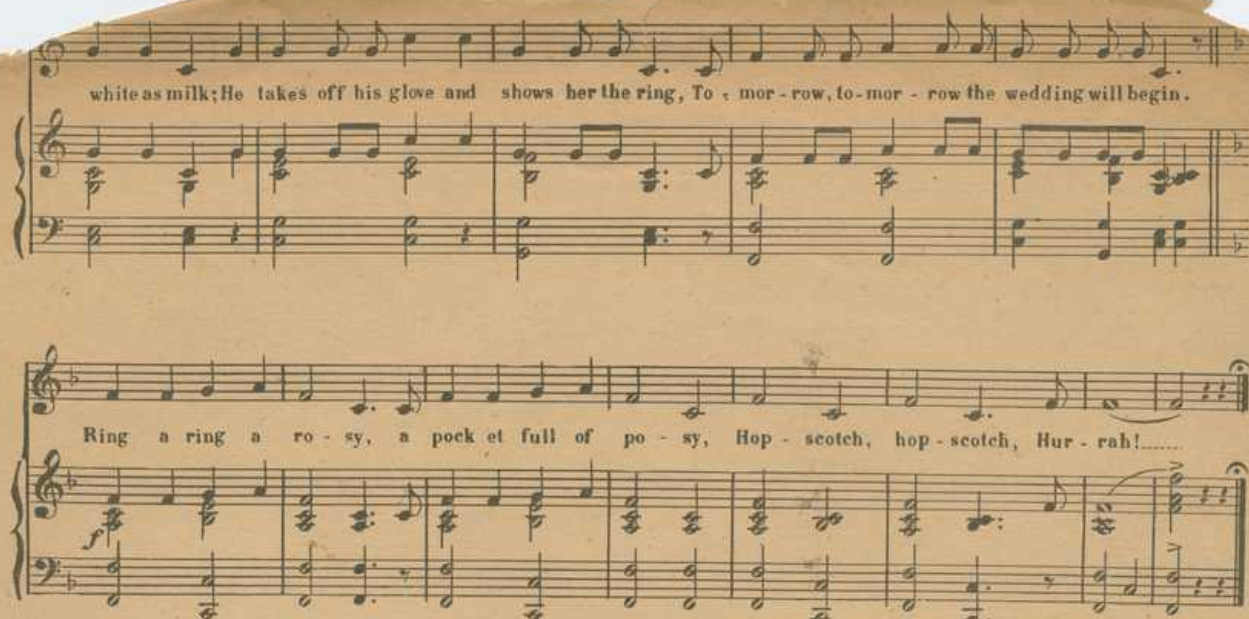

here we stand, Take your true love by the hand, Choose the one that you love best be - fore you close your wish you joy, First a girl and then a boy; Al - ways be happy and try to do good, and make your hus - band eyes to rest. chop the wood. Wa - ter, water, wild - flow'r grow - ing up so high, We are all young la - dies and we are sure to die; Ex - cep - ting lit - tle Nel - lie, she's the fi - nest flow - er! Fie, fie, fie, for shame! turn your back and tell your beau's name. Lit - tle Mick - y Mur - phy is a nice young man, Comes to the door with his hat in his hand. Down comes she all dressed in silk, Rose in her bosom as white as milk; He takes off his glove and shows her the ring, To - mor - row, to - mor - row the wedding will begin.

Ring a ring a ro - sy, a pocket full of po - sy, Hop - scotch, hop - scotch, Hur - rah!.....

~~~~~ Have You Heard ~~~~~

Andrew Mack's New Songs

As Sung by Him in His Latest Successes—

For Freedom and Ireland

Little Tommy Murphy

Mack's Serenade

Eyes of Blue

Be Sure To Get Them—For Sale Wherever Music Is Sold, or from the Publishers.

Other Successes by Andrew Mack Are:

|                                                    |                               |                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| THE STORY OF THE ROSE                              | PAT AND HIS PIPES             | MACK'S LULLABY                     |
| GRANDMOTHER'S SONGS                                | JACK O' LANTERN SONG          |                                    |
| My Sweet Maid, - - $ .50                          | Oh, Lonely Heart, - - $ .50  | Little Band of Gold, - - $ .50    |
| Mack's Lullaby - - .50                             | If You Love as I Love - - .50 | The Princess of Mulberry Bend, .50 |
| Last of the Rohans—Medley Waltz for Piano, $ .50. |                               |                                    |

FOR SALE AT ALL MUSIC STORES, OR

HOWLEY, HAVILAND & DRESSER, Publishers

1260-66 Broadway, New York.

Chicago.

Lilly
no.
048
box 165
no 38