PUT MY LITTLE TOYS AWAY.

Pathetic Song and Refrain.

Words by ARTHUR TREVELYAN.

Music by B. M. GARRETT.

Andante.

1. While the birds were home-ward wing-ing; Close be-side her moth-er's knee,
2. On-ward is the twi-light steal-ing; Close be-side the cot so dear

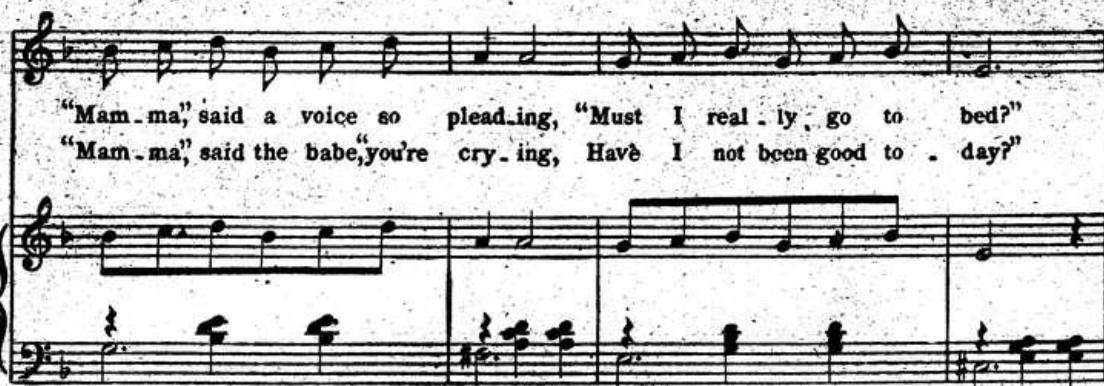

The musical notation for the first two verses is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The first verse is marked with a '1.' and the second with a '2.'. The lyrics are written below the melody.

Play-ing with her toys and sing-ing, Sat a ba-by girl of three.
There's an anx-ious moth-er kneel-ing, Know-ing that the end is near.

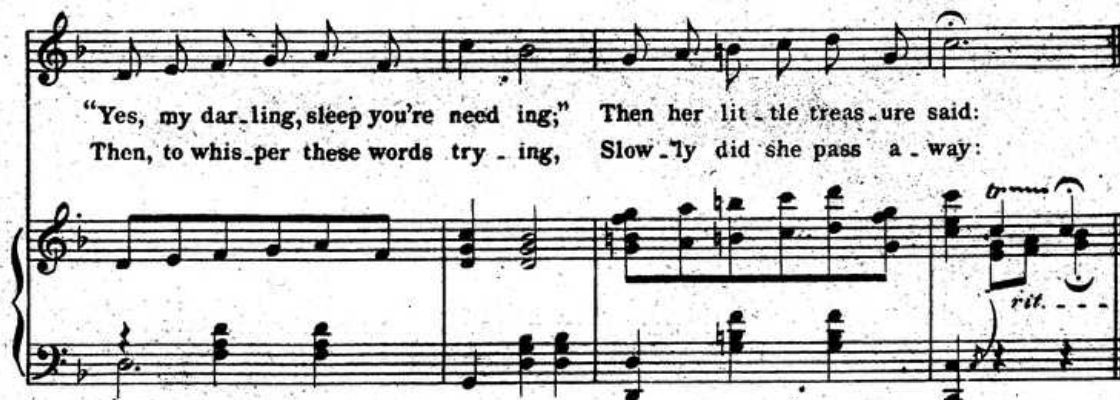

The musical notation for the final two lines of the song is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the melody.

"Mam-ma," said a voice so plead-ing, "Must I real-ly, go to bed?"
 "Mam-ma," said the babe, you're cry-ing, Have I not been good to-day?"

"Yes, my dar-ling, sleep you're need-ing," Then her lit-tle treas-ure said:
 Then, to whis-per these words try-ing, Slow-ly did she pass a-way:

Refrain.

"Mam-ma, kiss me, I'll be good and go to sleep

Put my little toys away.

If you'll prom-ise Now and then at me to peep, In the
