

Puth You Beside Me

Words by Raymond
A.
Browne

Music by Theodore F.
Morse

Sung by Hattie Delaro.

Published by Permission of Sol. Bloom,
Owner of Copyright.

WITH YOU BESIDE ME.

Words by
RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

Arr. by WM. H. PENN.
Music by BOB IRVING.

Moderato

The skies of life _____ are of - ten cloud - ed _____ The roads of The wings of time _____ oft droop a - wea - ry _____ And days seem

The piano accompaniment for the first line of lyrics consists of three measures. The right hand has a melody of eighth notes, and the left hand has a bass line with chords. The dynamic is marked 'p'.

fate _____ are hard to tread, _____ The future oft _____ in doubt is years _____ when friends are few, _____ There oft are times _____ when life seems

The piano accompaniment for the second line of lyrics consists of three measures. The right hand has a melody of eighth notes, and the left hand has a bass line with chords.

shroud - ed _____ And bud - ding hopes _____ too oft are drear - y _____ If 'twere not for _____ some sweet-heart fled, _____ But with thy love _____ to bring the sun - shine _____ And smooth the true, _____ But ah! with thee, _____ life's worth the liv - ing _____ What need for paths _____ that I must know _____ I care not what _____ the mor-row more _____ than one true friend _____ If that one! thee _____ my own, my brings me _____ Con-tent am I, _____ ah, yes, 'tis so! _____ pre - cious! That's all I'd own _____ un - til the end _____

With you be - side me, what need I care, If fic-kle for - tune smiles else - where? I crave naught but thy love di - vine, With you be - side me the world is mine. mine.

Lilly
M1, 748
Box 187, N. 37