The Marines' Hymn

Arranged by
A. Tregina, U. S.
Marine Band

March tempo

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 2/4 time, key of B-flat major. The right hand plays a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady eighth-note accompaniment. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present at the beginning.

The piano accompaniment for the first vocal line continues across two staves. It features a repeat sign followed by a melodic phrase in the right hand. A mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking is indicated. The lyrics "From the Halls of Our flag's un- Here's health to" are written above the vocal line.

The piano accompaniment for the second vocal line continues across two staves. The right hand has a melodic line with some slurs, and the left hand continues the accompaniment. The lyrics "Mon-te-zu ma To the shores of Trip-o- furl'd to ev'ry breeze From dawn to set-ting you and to our Corps Which we are proud to" are written above the vocal line.

The piano accompaniment for the third vocal line continues across two staves. The right hand has a melodic line with some slurs, and the left hand continues the accompaniment. The lyrics "li sun serve : We fight our count-ry's bat : We have fought in ev'ry clime and : In many a strife we've fought for" are written above the vocal line.

SONG OF THE SOLDIERS OF THE SEA

For nearly a hundred years the Marines' Hymn has been sung around the world. It has followed the Sea Soldiers to Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, China, France, Hawaii, the Philippines, or wherever they have performed their various missions for the United States. Around camp fires in Mexico, in rest billets behind the fighting front in France, beneath the palms of the tropics or aboard troop transports bound for adventures abroad, the words of their song have inspired untold legions of U. S. Marines to a high resolve and a renewed faith in their pledge of loyalty to the Flag. Tradition points to the origin of their hymn in 1847, during the Mexican War, when an unknown poet of the Corps set the original lyrics to the music of an old French opera. Out of the storied past have come changes and alterations of these lyrics, but there has been no change in the spirit of the Marines. Pride in their faithful performance of every duty since 1775 has prompted the Sea Soldiers to sing: "We are proud to claim the title of United States Marines."
