Voice

Ev - 'ry time I — get lone-some, And it's most ev - 'ry day; —
My heart it keeps — a yearn-ing, Not sat - is - fied — some - how; —

Some-how my thoughts they wan - der, Down old Ken-tuck - y way. —
For old Ken-tuck - y haunts me, Wish I was down there now. —

I s'pose you'd like to know why, — the rea-son that I — should care; — But I'll buy a home 'waydown there; — and if you call — I'm sure; — I'll you need-n't be — sur-prise, — when you find out — I'm down there. — be might-y glad — to share, — my hos-pi-tal - i - ty's yours. —

Chorus

In the hills of old Ken - tuck - y, — a - long the trail where the Blue Grass grows; — Some - one waits for me and I'll soon be,

Go - ing there for good - ness knows, I love her; And when I meet her,

I'll get the preacher, what could be sweet - er with my 'Rose'; In the hills of old Ken - tuck - y, — a - long the trail where the Blue Grass grows. In the grows. —
