

RINGS

Piano

I have been walk-ing in cir-cles my own. Ev-er since we first I have built cas-tles high up in the air. Chased rain-bows too I met. We seem to be in a Heav-en a-lone, The I have blown bub-bles in vain ev-'ry where, But rest of the world I for-get. You are so square and you have changed ev-'ry thing now. If you say "Yes" we'll you ring so true. That's why I say dear, to you. hear wed-ding bells. Where they ring hap-pi-ness dwells.

Chorus

There are rings that the mys - tic dream - er blows way up in - to the sky. — Rings that are giv - en bab - ies, When their moth-ers

hear them cry. — Rings you see a - round the moon dear

Rings of love made on the sand. — But the ring of rings my darl - -ing Is the gold - en wed - ding band. There are band.

I've Got My Captain Working For Me Now

CHORUS

I've got the guy — who used to be my Cap-tain work-ing for me —

He want-ed work — so I made him a clerk — in my fa-ther's fac - to - ry — And bye and
