

IT'S NEW!
IT'S PATRIOTIC!

Molly Molly Pitcher

COPYRIGHT BY HENRY MORGENTHAU JR.
Secretary of the Treasury
WASHINGTON, D. C.
Souvenir Copy
NOT TO BE SOLD

Words and Music by TOM ADAIR
and
SGT. DICK UHL
as Introduced by HJALMAR HANSON
and
THE GREAT LAKES
CHOIR

DISTRIBUTED BY THE INDEPENDENT RETAIL GROCERS OF AMERICA

JOLLY MOLLY PITCHER

Words by TOM ADAIR

Music by DICK UHL

Moderato Not too slow

1. Back in sev'n-teen sev'n-ty-eight, The
2. Back and forth a - cross the field, A -
3. Mol-ly's man, John Hays, he fell, A 4. Wheth-er back in sev'n-ty-eight Or his - 'try books re - veal, There lived a la - dy who was filled with mid the shock and shell, She car-ried wa - ter to the sol-diers, bul - let in his side; "Re - move the gun, for none can fill his war-times like to - day, Ev - 'ry one must buck - le down, And

* Symbols for Guitar, Ukulele and Banjo

Published by the Independent Food Distributors Council at the request of the Treasury Department in connection with the program for the sale of War Bonds and Stamps pa - tri - ot - ic zeal; Be - side her man at Mon-mouth She From a near-by well; The bat - tle raged a - round her, She place," the Gen'-ral cried. "No, nev - er," shout - ed Mol - ly "Oh, serve the U. S. A. So let's pitch in like Pitch-er, The braved the Red-coat's might, And when he fell she heard the can-nons pop; But still she manned the let me be the one!" And as she spoke, the girl they could-n't stop, And do our lev-el took his place And car-ried on the fight. Oh!

 pitch-er And she nev-er spilled a drop. Oh!
 Gen'-ral said, "Wom-an, man that gun!" Oh!
 best to bring Our count-ry out on top. Oh!

G  REFRAIN
mf

Am7  Cm+6  D7

G  Em7

A7  D7

JOL-LY MOL-LY PITCH - ER, In your ging-ham gown,

JOL-LY MOL-LY PITCH - ER, How you mowed 'em down; —

JOL-LY MOL-LY PITCH - ER, Brave e-nough for three; — And if you could do it Mol - ly, Gol - ly, so can we!

we!

D.S.  4 Last time only

D.S.

sf