

LITTLE HUMMING BIRD

WALTER HAWLEY
AND INEZ BELLAIRE

Published For BAND and ORCHESTRA

SONG

by WALTER HAWLEY
and INEZ BELLAIRE

WILL ROSSITER
THE CHICAGO PUBLISHER
71 W. RANDOLPH ST., CHICAGO, ILL.
COPYRIGHT MCMXVII BY WILL ROSSITER

LITTLE HUMMING BIRD

By WALTER HAWLEY and INEZ BELLAIRE

Allto Modto

Slowly mp

staccato mf 3 rall. mp delicato

Pret-ty lit-tle humming bird-ie,
Pret-ty lit-tle humming bird-ie,

8

buzz-ing 'round an 'round, — With a humm-ing sound, — Seems to say, I'll find a way of he's an art-ful spy, — Mer-ril-y he'll fly, — Here and there and ev-'ry-where, a kiss-ing pret-ty flow-ers on the lov-ers mound. — Sip-ping hon-ey while it's sun-ny, sip-ping all the day. — spy-ing on the lov-ers as they bill and coo. — Sip-ping hon-ey, girl and son-ny, love seems in the air. —

accel. a tempo

When the shades of night are fall-ing, Then he'll hide a-way, — So that lov-ers may, — Kiss and have full sway, —
Ev-'ry lov-er loves your buzzing, Pretty humming bird, — Just a lov-ers word, — Sweetest ev-er heard, —

accel. a tempo

accel. a tempo Allarg. rit

When the morning lark is call-ing, Then he'll fly a-way, — Sip-ping hon-ey, while it's sunny, on an-oth-er day. —
You're like Cup-id al-ways buzzing, Lit-tle humming bird, — Teach me hon-ey, while it's sunny, teach me humming bird. —

accel. a tempo colla voce rit

8

Rubato accel rit 3

Grace-ful - ly he flitt-ers on with - out a care, Sails through the air a buzz - ing

p colla voce accel rit

Chorus Gracefully

Oh! oh! lit - tle humming bird, — How he loves to pass the hours, — Sipp-ing hon - ey from the flow - ers, pmf

Oh! oh! pret - ty humming bird, — He's a lov - er, ar - dent lov - er, — Loves the sunshine showers.

rit rit

a tempo

Oh! oh! have you ev - er heard, — Just a true, a ten - der lov - ing word; —

a tempo

rall a tempo

If you'll let me buzz a-round you, You'll be aw-ful-ly glad I found you, — Be my hon - ey, and I'll be, Your

rall a tempo

1 2 D.C.

lit - tle humming bird. lit - tle humming bird.

Orchestra fz D.C.

From Editorial Page of the Chicago "Evening American"

SOMEWHERE SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

by WM. VAUGHAN DUNBAR and SHELTON BROOKS

Look at the above little picture for a few minutes, and you'll understand what this new ballad "SOMEWHERE, SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE" is all about. The story is well told, and the music is exceptionally good—it's a ballad that will live in the history of song. France has again astonished the world—and we are all glad to sing her praises; either in speech or in song, and we know we can often accomplish more with a song than a sermon. You will show your appreciation for right by having a copy of this song in your home, where your personal friends can see it. When ordering the song, be sure you mention the writers' names, so that you'll be sure to get the right song

WILL ROSSITER, "The Chicago Publisher" 71 W. Randolph Street, CHICAGO, ILL.

LL-SSM-2-015-0103

M. 58 II Animals--Birds-L-me