I neb - er thought when I fotch up dat child De Most eb - ry day at half - past eight Dem trub-ble she was going to make for me, She coons would flock a - round, And had eb'ry thing that mo-ney could buy, She was raised high-tone, you can give you tips on a horse at the gate, If you lose they can't be see, One eve' she dress'd for a fan-cy ball, and found, Dis same old crow he's got my child, has then she went a-way, And when she came home to stold my heart a-way, It makes me sigh, and make a call, Ah! She was spliced to a black, black jay, tum, tum, makes me cry, Ah! For she's gone with a race horse jay, tum, tum, CHORUS. Allegro.
