

THINK OF THE JOY WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME

— WORDS & MUSIC BY —
H. ROE GOULDING

PUBLISHED BY GOULDING MUSIC CO.,
BOSTON, MASS.

Think Of The Joy When The Boys Come Home

Words and Music by
H. ROE GOULDING

Intro.

PIANO

Some-where in France are the boys we love so dear-ly Hearts at home are left so sad and wear-y while they are fight-ing for lib-er-ty. — We'll work and pray — most earn-est-ly — And we'll wait and watch for the glo-ri-ous day — When they'll all come home a-gain. —

CHORUS

CHORUS

Think of the joy when the boys come home, — When the boys come home, — when the boys come home — Hearts that are sad will then be made glad — When the boys come home — For ev-'ry tear we've shed — there'll be a smile in - stead, — There's al-ways sun - shine af - ter rain — And we all will feel so hap - py for the sac - ri - fice we made When the boys come home a - gain. — gain. —

SOFTLY THE SHADOWS ARE STEALING

Over the Sunset Sky

Words by ROE GOULDING

Music by ARTHUR C. MORSE

CHORUS

Soft-ly the shad-ows are steal - ing, O-ver the sun - set sky, ——— The

Tempo mf

birds in the trees are sing - ing A low, sweet lul - la - by. ——— In my dreams for you I am call - ing, When the ros-es are kissed by the dew, ——— Come back dear, I Copyright, MCMXVIII, by C. W. Thompson & Co.

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES

BUY W S S. DON'T FORGET THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

M1.58
II European War
1914-1918
LL-SSM-2-090-0476