

To Miss Sarah J. Campbell.
Boston.

DAINTIEST LASS
of TRALLEE
SONG CHORUS WORDS BY
Arthur W. French, MUSIC BY Edwin Christie.

BOSTON.

OLIVER DITSON & CO. 451 WASHINGTON ST.

NEW YORK, C. H. DITSON & CO.
70 Broadway

CHICAGO, LYON & HEALY

BOSTON, J. C. HAYNES & CO.

PHILA. J. E. DITSON & CO.
Succ^{rs} to Lee & Walker

Copyright 1876 by O. Ditson & Co.

DAINTIEST LASS OF TRALLEE.

Words by ARTHUR W. FRENCH.

Music by EDWIN CHRISTIE.

Andante.

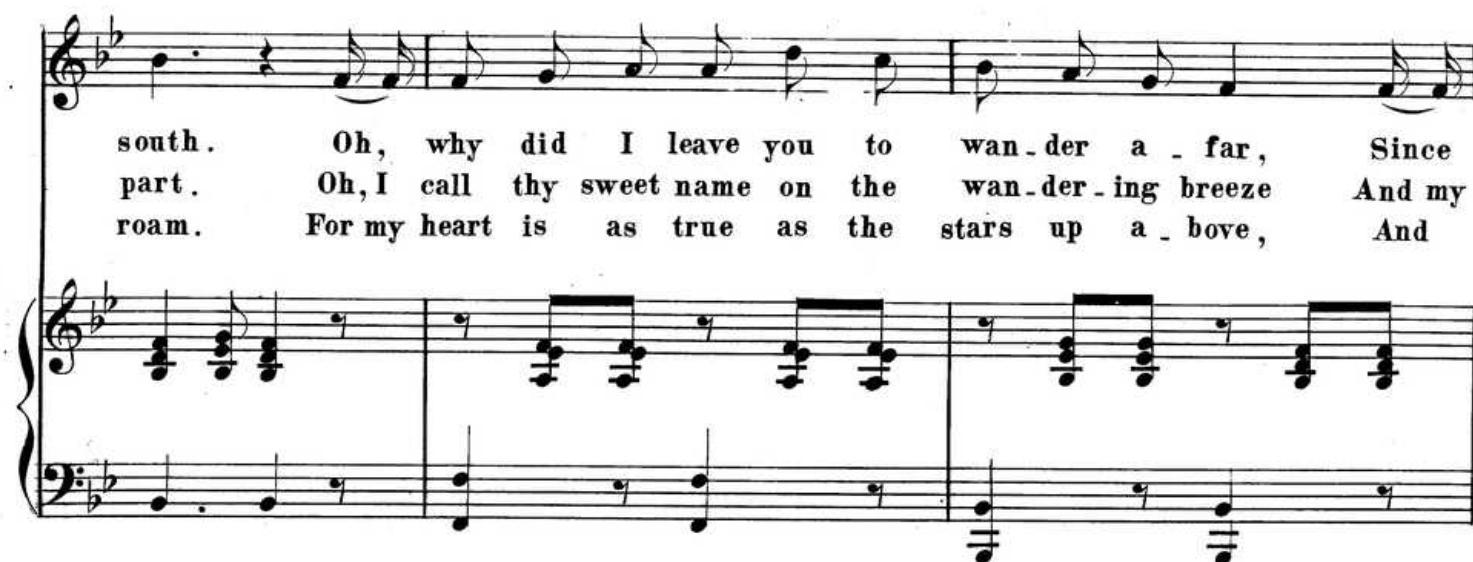

I. Dain - ti - est Lass of Tral - lee , Fairy one with the sweet rosebud mouth ;
 II. Dain - ti - est Lass of Tral - lee , Happy child of the in - no - cent heart ,
 III. Dain - ti - est Lass of Tral - lee , Far away in thine own sunny home

Gen - tle and care - less and free , On the breez - es that blow from the Ev - er I'm dreaming of thee , Tho' we wan - der for - e - ver a - Keep a sweet thought still of me , As I sad - ly a - far from you south. Oh, why did I leave you to wan-der a - far, Since part. Oh, I call thy sweet name on the wan-der-ing breeze And my room. For my heart is as true as the stars up a - bove, And you were the on - ly, the bright guiding star, To shine on my pathway far heart sends a message far o - ver the seas To one that is nearest and I shall come back to the hearts that I love, To the ones that are nearest and o - ver life's sea, From the dainty, the Dain-ti - est Lass of Tral-lee.

dearest to me, The dainty, the Dain-ti - est Lass of Tral-lee.
dearest to me, The dainty, the Dain-ti - est Lass of Tral-lee.

Chorus.

SOPR.

ALTO.

TENOR

BASS.

Piano.