The musical score for "Scramble Rag" is presented in four systems. Each system consists of a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The melody in the treble staff is characterized by eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, with frequent rests. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic patterns. The third system shows a variation in the bass line with more complex chordal structures. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in the treble staff and a sustained bass note.

This musical score is for a piece titled "Scramble Rag-3". It is written for piano and consists of five systems of music. Each system contains a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The music is characterized by a fast, syncopated tempo. The right hand (treble clef) features intricate, rapid sixteenth-note patterns, often with ties and slurs. The left hand (bass clef) provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes, including some syncopation. The notation includes various musical symbols such as sharps, flats, ties, slurs, and dynamic markings like accents. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the fifth system.
