On the There's a great lake shore of Michi - gan, In the state of Ill - i - nois; — Is a town of renown, And it's wel - come al - ways wait - ing you, And no mat - ter where you roam; — You can stray far a - way, But you're there I set - tled down, Ev - er since I was a boy; — And some - how I can't get a - way from it, — For — long - ing ev - 'ry day, For your old Chi - ca - go home; — You love ev - 'ry gosh - darn - part of it, — 'Cause you ev - 'ry place seems slow; — And no mat - ter where I go, — I want ev - 'ry - one to know, know it can't be beat; — And this is how you greet, — Ev - 'ry - bod - y that you meet.

Chorus.

I'm from Chi - ca - go, I'm from Chi-ca - go, That great big bus - y town;
 I'm from Chi - ca - go, I'm from Chi-ca - go, That great big bus - y town;

— Right in the mid-dle of the U. S. A. — Be - tween the New York Har - bor and the — No - bod - y shoots the bull — where I re - side, — We have so ma - ny stock-yards that we

San Fran - cis - co Bay; Where the won - der - ful East, — Meets the beau - ti - ful West, — It's the tie the bull in - side; It is some wind - y place, — And it sure sets the pace, — For best town that's been found; — That's why I'm speaking so loud — of it, Be - cause I'm darn proud man - y miles a - round; — The on - ly town heath the sky — a - bove, New York - ers are jeal -

— of it, Chi - ca - go, my home town. — I'm from Chi - town. —
 — ous of, Chi - ca - go, my home town. — I'm from Chi - town. —
