THE SHOP GIRLS OF NEW YORK.

Song and Chorus.

Words by GEORGE COOPER.

Music by CHARLES E. PRATT

Tempo di Valse.

1. They sing of maid - ens grand, ..... Of rich and high de -
 2. Now each one has her beau, ..... Of course, what girl has
 3. On Sun - days they stroll out, ..... Up - on the Av - e -

- gree; ..... The girls of our own land, ..... Are not? ..... At "speel - ing" they're not slow, ..... For nue, ..... They're dai - sies, I should shout! ..... In fair - er far to see..... Each morn up - on the pic - nics they're red hot..... They guy the fun - ny hats and dress - es new..... Their fel - lows then they street,..... You'll hear them laugh and talk ;..... They're full of dudes,..... And im - i - tate their walk,..... While hon - est meet,..... And have the nic - est talk,..... You bet they're fun, yes, ev-'ry one,— The shop-girls of New - York !..... work they nev - er shirk,— The shop-girls of New - York !.....

fine, and al-ways shine,— The shop-girls of New - York !.....

Chorus.

Pret - ty, wit - ty, Ro-guish and bright and gay;.....

mf

Trip - ping, skip - ping, Ro - sy as po - sies are they! Oh,

f

Min - nie, Win - nie, All arm in arm they walk,..... And

each one's a lit - tle Queen,—The shop-girls of New - York!.....
