tear - drop from the eye of sweet - heart proud, The life that brought him 'neath a doc - tors care, None old home nev - er seemed so sweet, the birds and flow'rs so fair, The came to cheer his pal - lid face, or watch his eyes grow dim, Till mus - ic of the brook such pur - i - ty, And heav - en sent a cure of con - stan - cy, 'Twas a tears had reach'd his eyes long ere he'd jour-neyed off a - far, from the clov - er blos - som wrapp'd with - in a few short plead-ing lines, from the ones he loved and dear old Ten - nes - see;

ones he loved and dear old Ten - nes - see;

Chorus.

Take me to your fields a - gain, dear old Ten -- nes - see,

Moth-er, dad and sweetheart true, Wait-ing there for me, Let me see those fac-es dear,

'neath the old oak tree, And hear them sing of home sweet home, dear old Ten-nes-see.
