

The Great Hit.

HARDBACK FAMILY

Jubilee Song with Dance

As sung by the Four Aces

TIERNEY, CRONIN, LESTER AND ALLEN

Words by

Charles R. Dockstader

Music by

EDWIN FRENCH.

BOSTON

Louis P. Goullaud 108 Tremont St.

N York Phil Chicago N Orleans S Francisco
Spear & Dehnhoff E D Freeman Chicago Music Co. Louis Grunewald M Gray

Copyright 1873 by L.P. Goullaud

THE HARD-BACK FAMILY.

Written & Composed by

EDWIN FRENCH.

PIANO.

VOICE.

1. I went to see my love last night, She was
2. I took my love to the en - gine - house To there when I ar - rived, I'm getting along fast in love you bet, It see the fire ma - chine, Her hair flew back on de top of her head, She is a great sur-prise. I ask her for her coal-black hand, Be look'd like a Dutch May-queen. Her dress was white, her smile was bright, Her mine for-ev-er-more, I tell you de fami-ly flew at me And fig-ure gaunt and lean; She was brigadier gen'ral of a mar-ket store, Sold chased me from de door. I'm going a-way to leave you, I hammers, turtles, and cream.

4

can't stop on de way, Clar de track, and dont pes-ter me, For I can no lon - ger stay. I'll drive the gos - pel en - gine I'll drive her through the land Swing on the gold - en char-i - ot, In that far off hap - py land.

CHORUS.

5

DANCE.