GOLDEN HEARTED DAISIES

By ELIZABETH CORDON and W. R. WILLIAMS

Everybody loves flower songs and the most successful flower songs seem to be those about Daisies. With this in mind our popular writer, W. R. Williams, has been looking for a suitable lyric for years, and finally accepted "Golden Hearted Daisies," as being a little different and a little better than the rest. This lyric is by Elizabeth Gordon, quite a well known newspaper writer. Mr. Williams has set it to one of his most "singable" melodies and we predict this song will soon become one of the leading home favorites. If you enjoy a simple and at the same time a beautiful little song with a happy thought, poetically told, then you will send for a copy of

DEAN HOUGH BERDEAUX

Here's another beautiful lyric by Beth Slater Whitson, the girl who wrote the sensational song success "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland." This new one is set to a very charming melody by Dean Hough Berdeaux, and though a comparatively new writer, is already meeting with much success. This song is being featured by the best singers in Vaudeville, which insures a big sale.

"SWEETHEART OF MY DREAMS"

By WILL J. JONES and GUS. KLEINECKE.

Seldom do we have in the popular song world one as musically good as this. It's a most remarkable song in that the lyric is so simple and pleasing that everyone can understand and appreciate it, and the melody is simply beautiful. It's refined and high-class in every way, and all in all "Sweetheart of My Dreams" is one of those songs that will live forever. I know of no higher compliment to a song than to say it will live forever.

Peek-a-boo Mister Moon Peek-a-boo.

By MARVIN LEE and DONALD BESTOR

"Peek-a-boo Mister Moon Peek-a-boo"

Just as the name implies a dainty little novelty song that brings the bright smiles to the surface. A song that's charming and graceful both in theme and treatment, too, and one that was instantly adopted by the "stage folk." It's a song you should have in your home, and we hope you will put it on your list of immediate "wants."

Will Rossiter's $7,000.00 Song "Wonder" "MEET ME TO-NIGHT IN DREAMLAND"

By Beth Slater Whitson and Leo Friedman

IMPORTANT FACTS!

The originator of this wonderful song is a girl, a young woman. The little lady is just like a beautiful flower, filled with goodness, and it seems to be her mission on earth to give out good thoughts and happiness to others by her natural talent to write these helpful song poems.

That's just why she wrote, "MEET ME TONIGHT IN DREAMLAND," which inspired Leo Friedman to write such a haunting melody, thereby giving the poem a most harmonious setting.

Beth Slater Whitson lives in a little world of her own among song birds and flowers on her little farm home, down among the purple shadowed hills of Tennessee, at Goodrich.

Though so far away from the busy world of commerce, she is able to market her writings, and is making a very comfortable living from the royalties. Her latest publications are, "LEAF BY LEAF THE ROBES FALL," "LOVE ME, LET THE WORLD GO BY" and "WON'T YOU TRY TO LOVE ME," on sale at all Music Departments, or direct from Will Rossiter, "The Chicago Publisher."

Another little bit of history of this "MEET ME TONIGHT IN DREAMLAND" song, is that it was first introduced to the American public by Miss Reine Davies, who is known as "The New American Beauty," and by her friends as the "True Blue" Girl. Miss Davies originally introduced the song at the leading New York Vaudeville Theatre, and received countless encores for her artistic work. Miss Vera Berliner, "The Violinist with a Soul," played the chorus of this song walking down the center aisle, which made it an instantaneous success.

So you see, we have a song that is making history in "The World of Good Things," written by a girl, Beth Slater Whitson, and produced on the stage by Reine Davies and Vera Berliner. I consider this of vital interest in this day and age and that's why I'm printing the facts right here. Hoping you will read and tell your friends about it, for no home can be complete today without Beth Slater Whitson's beautiful songs.

Get a copy of this song at once, sing it as often as you can and it will make you happy and also others. If you can't find it in your town send 25 cents to me and I'll send you a copy by return prepaid mail.
