

I AIN'T GOT NO HAPPY HOME TO LEAVE.

WRITTEN AND COMPOSED BY J. FRED HELLF - AUTHOR OF
"THE NORMAN" AND
"A PICTURE NO ARTIST CAN PAINT"

THE SUNDAY
POST DISPATCH
MUSIC ALBUM

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
SUNDAY, MARCH 4, 1900

PRINTED BY THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

I AIN'T GOT NO HAPPY HOME TO LEAVE!

Written & Composed by
J. FRED HELF.

Moderato.

PIANO.

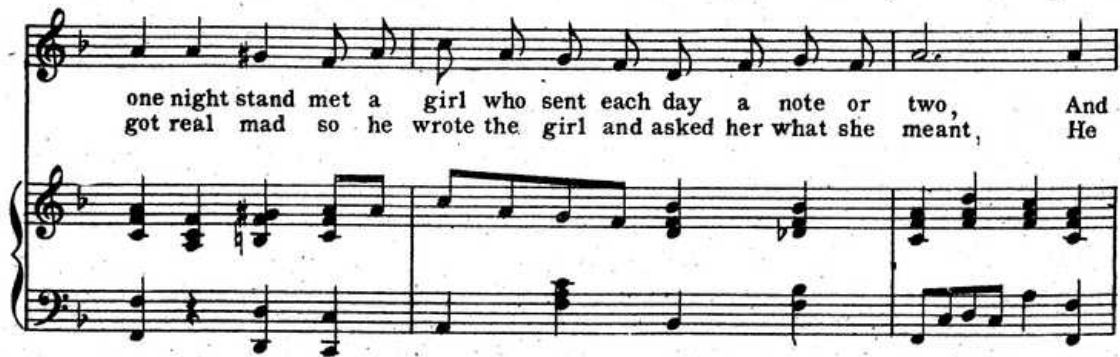

Voice.

'TILL READY

1. An ac - tor - man, on a
2. This man felt sad and he one night stand met a girl who sent each day a note or two, And got real mad so he wrote the girl and asked her what she meant, He ev - 'ry note this nice gal wrote would read, I'd leave my hap - py home for said, now hon I've got no mon' Don't leave me stranded here with - out a you," Now this ac - tor need - ed mon - ey, So he wrote to her, "dear hon - ey, Would you cent, The next day he got a let - ter, Thought it was - n't an - y bet - ter, She en - leave your hap - py home for me" he said, If you would please send me ten, Till you closed a bill which he said was a - two, And she add - ed "Hen - ry dear, Make this hear from me a - gain, When he got an an - swer this is what he read. Well!

last you till next year, For you know, I'd leave my hap - py home for you!" But!

CHORUS.

Moderato.

I ain't got no hap-py home to leave Oh! babe don't grieve, I met an ac - tor - man last Thursday eve', would you be - lieve, I joined his show I blew my dough, and sold my hap-py home, Now

I ain't got no hap-py home to leave Oh!babe don't grieve. leave Oh! babe dont grieve.

Willy
m1
D48
box 182
no 44
4/11/2