"MY DIXIE ROSE"

Words and Music
By ERNIE BURNETT
Comp. of "Melancholy Baby"

Voice

South-ern moon am shin-ing down in Birds are al-ways sing-ing in my

Moderato

Dix-ie - land, Can't you hear those dark-ies strum-ming, mus-ic - grand, south-ern home, Call-ing me to come back, nev-er - more to - roam,

I can hard-ly wait un - til, I take a - choo-choo train home, -
When I get down south a - gain, I'll nev-er - leave there no more, -

An - y - where be-low the Mas-on Dix-on - line, where the cot-ton grows, -
You can have your Broadway and it's Great White Way, with its haughty air, -

There's the sweet-est flow-er bloom-ing all the - time, it's my Dix-ie Rose. -
I am go - ing back, down to my south-ern home, and my Rose so fair. -

My Dixie Rose 2

Roses grow the summer, roses grow the fall,
Roses grow in northland, roses grow out west,
But the rose that grows in Dixie - land I love the best. So

Patter Chorus (ad lib)

S

I am coming, Com-ing to claim you Dix-ie Rose, — My Dix-ie Rose. —

Fine

I'm bound to win you, — All — the lit-tle bees am hum-ming, Tell - - ing you that

Let — me breathe the fra-grant per-fume, that's down with - in you, —

O — - - pen up your pe-tals just for me, — my Dix-ie Rose,
