Marziale

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked 'Marziale' and 'ff' (fortissimo). The introduction consists of a series of chords and eighth-note patterns in both hands. The vocal melody enters in the second system, with the lyrics 'Ten What' appearing above the staff. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern. The third system contains the main vocal melody with the lyrics: 'mil - lion sol - diers to the war have gone, Who may vic - tor - y can cheer a moth - er's heart, When she'. The piano accompaniment features a 'mf' (mezzo-forte) dynamic. The fourth system continues the vocal melody with the lyrics: 'nev - er re - turn a - gain. Ten looks at her blight - ed home? What'. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support throughout.

CHORUS

The musical score for the chorus of "I Didn't Raise My Boy" is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of five systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. The vocal line includes lyrics and melodic lines with various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and dynamic markings like p-f.

"I did - n't raise my boy to be a sol - - dier, I

TWO NEW SONG HITS FOR THE NEW YEAR
—AS ADVERTISED IN—

"The Saturday Evening Post"

"You Can't Go Wrong With a Feist Song"

"There's a Little Spark of Love Still Burning"

"On the Shores of Italy"

Yes—"There's a little spark of love still burning."

Long before you finish the first verse the sparks of rhythm have become big, burning brands of bright, sparkling, tuneful melody.

Not every song can furnish a whole evening's entertainment. But "On the Shores of Italy" can.

Let someone start it on the piano. Watch the others and see how quickly they catch the magic of its sunny strains and begin singing this really worthwhile love ballad.

Dancers! Here's a Hesitation Waltz that "tickles the toes." As a Dance Lyric, "On the Shores of Italy" has arrived. Van & Schenck and other Headliners are winning plaudits with it.

Get your copy today. Remember, it's both Song and Dance. Jack Glogau and Al Piantadosi (the authors) warrant it to set singers a-singing, dancers a-dancing.

After you have finished the refrain you'll say, "This song is certainly a joy-thriller; don't stop; play it again and again!" It is that good!

Kitty Gordon sings it. Fred Fischer wrote the music and Joe McCarthy the lyrics. Here's proof enough for anybody that "There's a Little Spark of Love" is some song!

These pieces may also be procured for your Talking Machine or Player Piano. Orchestra leaders will gladly play them on request.
