Tempo di Caprice.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of four systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The first system begins with a treble staff containing a triplet of eighth notes, marked p. The bass staff has a single eighth note. A crescendo hairpin spans the first two measures. The third measure of the first system has a treble staff with a triplet of eighth notes, marked f, and a bass staff with a single eighth note. The fourth measure has a treble staff with a triplet of eighth notes, marked f, and a bass staff with a single eighth note. The system ends with a treble staff containing a triplet of eighth notes, marked f, and a bass staff with a single eighth note, followed by a rit. marking. The second system starts with a treble staff containing a triplet of eighth notes, marked p, and a bass staff with a single eighth note. The third system starts with a treble staff containing a triplet of eighth notes, marked f, and a bass staff with a single eighth note. The fourth system starts with a treble staff containing a triplet of eighth notes, marked p, and a bass staff with a single eighth note.
